The CCA Andratx Museum is the largest center of contemporary art in Mallorca. Is located on the south side of the Tramuntana Mountains, only 30 minutes away from Palma.

The 4.000 m2 building has a minimalist but traditional style that is perfectly integrated with the breathtaking natural scenery of its surroundings.

A perfect place to organize dinners, weddings, conferences, business meetings, photo shootings, films, and special events.

CCA Andratx museum

The CCA Andratx, known by its exhibitions of high-level contemporary art, has opened its spaces for the celebration of all kinds of events. The natural environment, in combination with the latest trends of contemporary international art, offers a unique environment for the celebration of any private or company event.

The wide range of spaces offered for events is complemented by a singular proposal that turns any event into a unique experience surrounded by the most current art in the middle of Majorca's beautiful nature.

The exhibition spaces are large but flexible with concrete flooring and simple white walls. There are no windows to the surrounding landscape, but the courtyard's large glass doors open into the exhibition halls, with the light being beautifully filtered through the colonnade.

Interior / Exterior capacity 700 persons

The grounds of CCA Andratx spread from the small village of Sa Coma up through the valley with the fertile terraces to the high pine-covered mountains that lead directly to the sign-posted nature walks for which Mallorca is so famous.
